Naples, September 12.

THE warlike Preparations which have been for ſome Time carrying on here, are at preſent ſuſpended. On the 31ſt paſt a Miniſter from the Grand Seignor to his Sicilian Majeſty landed here from on board the St. Phillip; he was immediately conducted to the Palace prepared by the Court for his Reception, and a Preſent of Eatables ſent to him. On the 9th Inſtant he went to Court, in order to ſettle the Formality of his publick Audience, which is fixed for the 13th Inſtant. The King 'tis thought will receive him dreſſed in the Robes of the Order of St. Gennaro, attended by the Knights of that Order. This Ambaſſador brings very rich Preſents from the Grand Seignor to their Sicilian Majeſties.

Rome, Sept. 16. The Pope has ordered ſeveral Warehouſes to be built at Civita Vecchia, which he has lately declared a Free Port, for the Uſe of ſuch Merchants as are willing to ſettle there.

Leghorn, Sept. 22. On the 6th Inſtant in the Evening General Walſeck arrived here from Florence, and was complimented by M. de Braitewitz and all the military Officers. The next Day he was preſented, with the uſual military Formality, to the Auſtrian Troops, as their Commander in chief, in the room of the late M. de Wachtendonck. They write from Tripoly, that M. Voſek, Miniſter from the King of Naples, had concluded a Treaty of Peace and Commerce with that Regency on the ſame Footing as the other Chriſtian Powers. His Britannick Majeſty's Ship the Durſley, Captain Hughes Commander, came in this Day from Cruizing.

Dublin Caſtle, September 23.

This Evening arrived his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom: He was received at his landing by the Lords Juſtices, and ſeveral of the Nobility, as alſo by the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs of Dublin. The Forces in Garriſon here, and the Militia of the City lined the Streets through which his Grace, attended by a Regiment of Horſe, the Battle-Axe Guards and other Officers attending the State, proceeded to the Caſtle, where there was a numerous Appearance to compliment him on his ſafe Arrival.
